

Children Enter School Ready to Succeed Thanks to First 5 San Bernardino

San Bernardino, CA, November 2, 2010 – First 5 San Bernardino granted Arrowhead United Way (AUW) $100,000 to continue their Born Learning program. The program increases awareness in parents/caregivers about the importance of early learning and helps them engage their young children in learning during everyday activities prepare them for school. The program also provides information to parents/caregivers about the developmental stages and health needs of young children. Research shows that disadvantage children come into school years behind their peers in pre-literacy skills, and rarely catch up. The partnership between AUW and First 5 San Bernardino is to support children and families

AUW is currently providing Born Learning workshops to the community. The next Born Learning workshop will take place on:

Wednesday, December 1, 2010 from 5:30 pm to 6:30pm

AUW is a volunteer driven organization that actively supports health and human services by focusing on youth services, family services, and basic needs. These services address the underlying causes of the community's issues and create lasting change. The organization was established over 118 years ago and is led by prominent respected community leaders; it is one of the oldest United Ways in the country.

AUW encourages individuals to become more involved in the community by giving, advocating, and volunteering. For more information about how to become involved with AUW, please call (909) 884-9441 or visit www.ArrowheadUnitedWay.org.
